PLEASE READ- IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Pursuant to S.C. Code of Laws §26-1-90 (K) and (J), a notary public who is not a licensed attorney may not provide a service that would constitute the unauthorized practice of law. More specifically, a notary cannot claim to have powers, qualifications, rights or privileges that a notary does not have.

Unless you are a member of the South Carolina Bar or otherwise authorized to perform prescribed legal activities by action of the South Carolina Supreme Court, you are prohibited from the practice of law.

The following are activities that are considered the practice of law in South Carolina:

1. Drafting or completing a record or transaction that requires a notarial act;
2. Selecting or helping a person understand a record or transaction requiring a notarial act;
3. Preparation of legal documents;
4. Giving legal advice or answering legal questions;
5. Appearing in court on behalf of someone else;
6. Performing a real estate or mortgage loan closing; and
7. Title search and preparation of title documents.

These activities must not be performed without an attorney's supervision. Pursuant to S.C. Code of Laws §40-5-310, a person who engages in the unauthorized practice of law is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both. This is the penalty per offense.
